Question #6

Can I have more than one checking account linked to Online Banking?

Answer: Yes. You can link all of your checking accounts and any other accounts that you are authorized to your Online Banking. When you enroll online, you will be asked to provide which active accounts you would like to have linked to Online Banking. If you open new accounts you will have the option to link those accounts to Online Banking.

Note: Only checking accounts can be linked to the Bill Payment functions in Online Banking.

Question #7

How current is Online Banking information?

Answer:

- All posted transactions to your account are immediately viewable through Online Banking, as our system is online/real-time.
 - Online Banking initiated transactions such as transfers between two accounts will update immediately.
 - Certain transactions, such as ATM/Debit Card and Point of Sale can take longer to view. These transactions will not show up on or be deducted from your account balance until they have cleared through the Bank.

Question #8

What if Online Banking goes down? Will my payments be made, will my transfers go through?

Answer: If Online Banking is down, all transactions you had already processed, prior to the system going down, will go through. If you were in the middle of a transaction and there is a question as to whether the system has received the request, you may contact us to ensure that your transaction request has been accepted.

Question #9

What is the funds transfer cut-off time? What about recurring transfers?

Answer:

- One-time transfers are processed immediately; as Online Banking is an online/real-time system.
- Future dated or recurring transfers between accounts are made during overnight processing.
- If a transfer is scheduled to be processed on a weekend or Bank holiday, it will transfer on the business day prior to the scheduled date. For example, if a recurring or future dated transfer is scheduled to be made on a Saturday or Sunday, it will be processed on the previous Friday.

Question #10

If I already have a scheduled transfer(s) set up between accounts at Salem Co-operative Bank that were not originally scheduled through my Online Banking, can I edit or stop these transactions using Online Banking?

Answer: No. If you have previously arranged for a recurring transfer between accounts including automatic loan payments, but did not do so using the Online Banking system, you will not be able to change any details of those transactions online. Please contact us to make any changes.
